Diving, socialising and promoting responsible diving practices

Membership Application

Thank you for your interest in the Far North Recreational Dive Club Inc. Purposes of our club are to:

- Promote and organise skin and scuba diving and associated activities in the Far North;
- Promote safe diving practices;
- Support and encourage participation regardless of age, gender and ability;
- Build the confidence of newly certified divers;
- Provide a forum for social events;
- Provide a resource for sourcing appropriately qualified divers to assist with Search and Rescue activities;
- Promote training for non-certified divers;
- Promote conservation, responsible care for the environment and adherence to maritime and fisheries regulations.

Meetings are held regularly and dives are planned most weekends. Check the website www.diveclub.co.nz, and contribute stories, photos and ideas.

Please attach information below with your membership subscription of $25.
